

WEATHER SCHOOL!

Experience a working TV station and learn about Your Weather!

CTV Weather School is a fun interactive learning experience for grade 4 students.

Your class will meet Weathercaster Marke Driesschen and test their skills on the 'green screen' forecasting the weather from around the province. After we roll to tape, the group will head down the hall to meet in house meteorologist Jesse Mason to learn how we compile the daily forecast. When it's all wrapped up, your class will gather for a goodbye camera shot for their cameo appearance on 'CTV News at Six' with Bill Good and Pamela Martin.

Due to the increased demand for participation, the program will exclusively be offered to Grade 4 classes as it is relevant to the BC Ministry of Education Science Grade 4 curriculum. We will accept one class per school in order to share opportunities with other groups across the province. The program will be offered each Wednesday starting at 1:00 pm for 1 hour. Programs are offered from the beginning of October to the end of June and take place in the CTV Newsroom.
